For additional copies of FUEL please contact the Church of Ireland Youth Department through our website. Please get in touch and give us your feedback - we value it!

FUEL is an opportunity for you to get to know more about God, yourself, others and the world you live in. Don't worry if you think you're not very 'spiritual'... be open-minded and hungry for something deeper than what you've experienced so far.

FUEL's purpose is to enable you to hear God speaking through His words in the Bible. In this booklet you'll see two different pages. On the left there will be a space to write the date and where you were reading from in the Bible (don't try to read too much at one time; take a smaller section to reflect and think about what it is saying). Take your time... reading the section a few times slowly. Below that will be a series of questions to help you hear how God is speaking to you. Feel free to answer these questions in whatever order you find most helpful.

When it comes to communicating with God, there is no 'right' way to go about it. He is constantly communicating with us in a variety of ways. Make sure that you own a version of the Bible that is easy for you to read and understand; there are lots of helpful study bibles out there for young people. If you need help, ask your youth leader or minister/pastor.

The second page is a blank space for you to express yourself in any way you wish, you can write prayers or doodle - be creative!

WHY 40 DAYS?

Whenever God wanted to prepare someone for his purposes, he took 40 days.

Jesus was empowered by 40 days in the wilderness.

Noah's life was transformed by 40 days of rain.

Moses was transformed by 40 days on Mount Sinai.

David was transformed by Goliath's 40-day challenge.

Elijah was transformed when God gave him 40 days of strength from a single meal.

The entire city of Nineveh was transformed when God gave the people 40 days to change.

The disciples were transformed by 40 days with Jesus after his resurrection.

40 DAYS

IS SHORT ENOUGH OF A TIME TO MAKE IT EASILY ACHIEVABLE, BUT IT'S LONG ENOUGH OF A TIME TO HELP CREATE A HABIT!

Lent is a season of 40 days, a time of repentance and preparation, for the coming of Easter. It is a time of self-examination and reflection. In the early church, Lent was a time to prepare new converts for baptism. Today, Christians focus on their relationship with God, often choosing to give up something or to volunteer and give of themselves for others.

The period of Lent in the church calendar is a great time to start good habits that will benefit your relationship with God. There is space for 50 days in this book - when you've started to read your Bible and get into the habit, we want you to continue! This is an example of a daily reading plan with bite-sized portions of the bible to read - lots of other reading plans like this one are available on the internet for lots of books of the Bible. We want to help you get started:

MAY YOU EXPERIENCE THE WONDER, MYSTERY AND LOVE THAT IS GOD AS YOU MAKE SPACE TO MEET WITH HIM

Sample Reading from the Book of John

"Don't let this throw you. You trust God, don't you? Trust me. There is plenty of room for you in my Father's home. If that weren't so, would I have told you that I'm on my way to get a room ready for you? And if I'm on my way to get your room ready, I'll come back and get you so you can live where I live. And you already know the road I'm taking."

Thomas said, "Master, we have no idea where you're going. How do you expect us to know the road?" Jesus said, "I am the Road, also the Truth, also the Life. No one gets to the Father apart from me. If you really knew me, you would know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him. You've even seen him!"

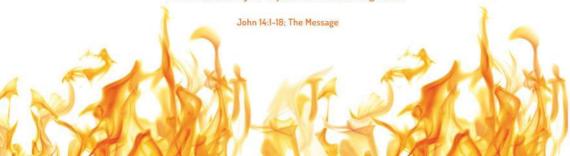

Philip said, "Master, show us the Father; then we'll be content." "You've been with me all this time, Philip, and you still don't understand? To see me is to see the Father. So how can you ask, "Where is the Father?' Don't you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you aren't mere words. I don't just make them up on my own. The Father who resides in me crafts each word into a divine act. Believe me: I am in my Father and my Father is in me.

If you can't believe that, believe what you see – these works."

"The person who trusts me will not only do what I'm doing but even greater things, because I, on my way to the Father, am giving you the same work to do that I've been doing. You can count on it. From now on, whatever you request along the lines of who I am and what I am doing, I'll do it. That's how the Father will be seen for who he is in the Son. I mean it. Whatever you request in this way, I'll do."

"If you love me, show it by doing what I've told you. I will talk to the Father, and he'll provide you another Friend so that you will always have someone with you. This Friend is the Spirit of Truth. The godless world can't take him in because it doesn't have eyes to see him, doesn't know what to look for. But you know him already because he has been staying with you, and will even be in you!

I will not leave you orphaned. I'm coming back."

DATE: February, 14th 2018 WHAT I READ: John 14.1-18

What word, phrase or sentence stood out to me as I read?

"The person who trusts me will not only do what I'm doing but even greater things, because I, on my way to the Father, am giving you the same work to do that I've been doing. You can count on it" (verse 12)

How does it make me feel? What does it lead me to think about?

I feel excited, humbled, honoured It makes me think about what wonderful things God might want to do through me

What does this Scripture say to me about who God is?

It lets me know that God is about relationships. He wants me to partner with Him in His work in the world He trusts me to fulfil a part of His plan here.

What might God be trying to say to me through it?

He may be asking me if I do really trust Him. He may also be asking me if I want to be part of what He's doing in peoples' lives.

How do I want to respond to what God is saying to me?

I really do want to trust Him and continue on the great adventure of walking through life with Him - taking part in His great revolution for the world!

How will what God has said impact or change my life?

If I believe what He's saying to me it has the potential to change everything - the way I think, speak and act. I will always see what I do as either working with or against God.

What would I most like God to do in my life today? (Ask Him)

God, please give me courage to trust myself completely to You.

Finding your own 'Thin Place'

When the message of Jesus Christ came to the shores of Ireland through the work of Saint Patrick and others, early Irish Christians exemplified some unique qualities which still hold meaning for our world today. These Christians had a deep reverence for God's created world and treated it with much respect. They had a steadfast commitment to the Scriptures (Bible) which showed in how they lived their daily lives. Central to all of their worship was the Holy Trinity - the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit.

One of the practices of the early Irish Church that you may find helpful in your own journey with God is that of finding a 'thin place'. These Christians believed that there were places in the world around them where heaven and earth were drawn more closely together. These were special places that often helped turn the hearts and minds of those present towards God. Thin places are where God seems more near to you than anywhere else. Do you have a place like this? In which places do you sense God most strongly in your life? What activities help you 'see' God more clearly?

If you dont have a thin place start looking for one. It's a place where you and God enjoy each others' full attention. This can be anywhere: at school, church, in your bedroom, with a friend or outdoors. Ask God to reveal Himself to you and draw you closer to Him. Throughout history, God has never failed those who have desired to know Him.

It is very important to have people in your life that bring the best out in you, that encourage you to trust more and more of yourself to God. It's also important to have someone with whom you can be unguarded and share your thoughts and feelings; including what God is doing in and through you. If you don't already know someone you can do this with, ask God to bring a sincere Christian your way who will support you in your developing relationship with Jesus. Sometimes it's easier to be more aware of God in our lives when someone else helps us see Him at work.
